In order to get the most out of your visit to the Graduate Recruitment and Placement Fair you may want to prepare questions to ask employers. The list below gives examples of questions you could ask. This is not a definitive list – you may have your own preferred questions. The notes pages overleaf give you the opportunity to note down who you want to speak to and the outcome of any discussions. Enjoy the fair!

Opportunities and Requirements

- What sort of graduate opportunities, internships or placements do you offer?
- Are you recruiting currently/this academic year?
- Do you have any specific requirements in relation to degree subject or classification?
- What particular skills and experiences do you look for?
- Will you consider applications from international students or graduates?

Applications and Selection

- Can you tell me about the selection methods you use?
- Have you any tips on how to prepare for these?
- What does your assessment centre consist of?
- What are the main reasons candidates are unsuccessful?

More About the Job

- What do new graduates do in the first sixth months?
- What sorts of projects are graduates involved in within your organisation?
- Can you tell me more about the job and what a graduate would do in a typical week?
- How are placements in your organisation structured?
- What can I expect to get involved in on placement?

Training and Development

- Can you tell me more about the training you offer?
- What qualifications do graduates take?
- How will my performance be reviewed?
- Will there be an opportunity for a placement student to join the organisation as a graduate?
Job Satisfaction

- Can you tell me about the organisation’s management style?
- What do you like about your job?
- What kinds of problems and challenges do you have to deal with?
